

Dear Students,

October 16th, 2009

The UT Arabic Flagship Program is pleased to announce that we are accepting applications for Spring 2010 which means many new opportunities for students to study at UT and abroad to achieve superior level Arabic.

The application form is available to download from our website:

<http://utarabicflagship.org/>

The deadline for submitting your completed application is Monday, 2nd November, 4pm. Below are additional details on the program.

Funding:

For the upcoming academic year, the AFP is pleased to be able to offer up to $4,500 in tuition support for qualified students. Additional funding for summer study of Arabic is also available for study at the UT Summer Institute and in Alexandria, Egypt.

At the conclusion of the four years, the AFP will substantially fund qualified students for a one-year intensive Arabic program at the Language Overseas site in Alexandria, Egypt or Damascus, Syria.

We are looking for:

Our program is looking for talented, committed students of any year of undergraduate study who are prepared to study Arabic for the long term. Applicants to the AFP must be able to show a commitment to and a passion for the language.

More information on the Language Flagship Organization, our sponsor, is available at the following website: <http://thelanguageflagship.org>

How to Apply:

Please download the application form from our website, and print and prepare a paper copy. You will also need to include your current UT transcripts and one teacher recommendation. Return the applications to Helena Schneider in WMB 1.110. You may also leave clearly marked applications at the DMES 6th floor reception.

If you have any questions, please contact Helena Schneider at (512) 471-1724 or Helena.schneider@austin.utexas.edu. A current AFP student will also be visiting you in the next two weeks to answer any other questions you may have.

We look forward to receiving your applications!
